

D.T. HAWKEN RIFLE PHOTO ESSAY

BY MARK BENDER

This photo essay concerns details of two fullstock muzzleloading rifles from Ohio marked in stamped letters or script as "D. T. Hawken." As has been noted Daniel Hawken is related to Sam and Jake Hawken of plain's rifle fame and a member of the Hawken gun-making clan as described in the accompanying feature articles in the AU 2020 and Sp 2021 issues of AOLRC

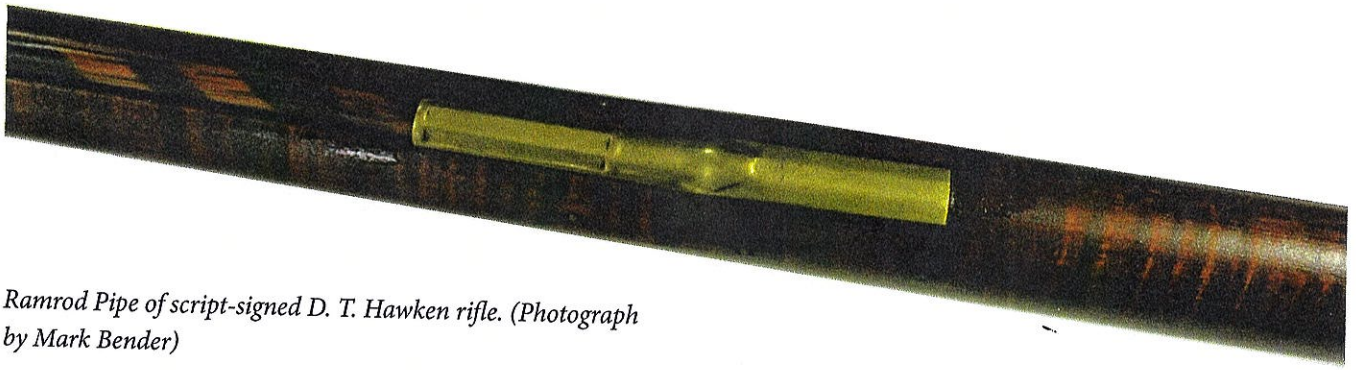

Newsletter. All three D.T. Hawken rifles illustrated in Part I or Part II are very much of a pattern and have similar curved cheekpieces, hardware, and dimensions. Special thanks to Jim Clippinger, Kim Clippinger, David E. Bowser, and Old Barn Auction for contributions to this series of articles.

*Right side of two
D. T. Hawken Ohio rifles. (Photograph by Mark Bender)*

*Tang of stamped,
D.T. Hawken rifle.
(Photograph by Mark Bender)*

Ramrod Pipe of script-signed D. T. Hawken rifle. (Photograph by Mark Bender)

View of D. T. Hawken rifles. (Photograph by Mark Bender)

Tang of script-signed, D. T. Hawken rifle. (Photograph by Mark Bender)